1 make sure we --

2 SA HYATT: Mm-hmm. Dead bats.

3 THE WITNESS: -- cleaned up feathers and stuff, so
4 -- and --

5 MR. KELLEY: So along with the gun, so --

6 SA HANNAN: Yeah.

7 MR. KELLEY: He had the shotgun --

8 THE WITNESS: There is that. Then he had --

9 MR. KELLEY: And what happened to the shotgun?

10 THE WITNESS: We got rid of it. We bartered it.

11 SA HANNAN: Okay.

12 THE WITNESS: So --

13 BY SA HYATT:

14 Q For another gun, or --

15 A Uh no.

16 Q Okay.

17 A We -- we got this dog from Craigslist, and found
18 out it was really abused, severely abused, where the lady
19 ended up using razors on him. And he was underweight, had 20 worms. There was a lot of problems. So we bartered the 21 shotgun and got him and got it to where we grew his ear hair
22 back and his tail hair. It got rid of his worms. We made
23 sure he had his shots. We had everything done and then we 24 re-homed him, because we couldn't keep him.

25 SA HANNAN: Hmm

1 He would clean them. Every time after he would shoot he
2 would clean them. He loved taking them apart and then
3 comparing them to the newer versions.

4 MR. KELLEY: He'd clean. He'd cleaned my gun and my
5 wife's gun. Worked for me.

6 SA HYATT: Mm-hmm. Hey.

7 SA HANNAN: Sure.

8 THE WITNESS: Like he wanted to know the difference
9 in all of the make and models that they all had out there,
10 and that's what he would look up and research, non-stop
11 research, was things like that and how to make yourself
12 better with it. And even if you were -- like he was trained,
13 just different things like that.

14 And then it got to where he wanted to help teach
15 civilian people how to protect themselves, because there was 16 a story where this mom was home alone with her kids, and the 17 guy came in and she didn't have a shotgun, you know, she
18 wouldn't be able to protect herself or her babies. So --

19 BY SA HANNAN:

20 Q Mm-hmm. Did you actually go to the gun stores with 21 him?

22 A Yeah.

23 Q You don't sound like you enjoyed that.

24 A Well, I did, it's just I know now it may look bad.

25 MR. KELLEY: Well, what they tried to pin on the
